OUR SERVICE FLOW

Arranging Vendors

We have a large unique network of small medium and large manufacturing factories Also we have very good sourcing for all related kinds of materials and accessories.

We allocate the appropriate manufacturers to suit the products and the buyer's best interest.

Sample Development

We arrange samples and development of different types like pre-production and green seal etc.

We arrange approval for samples and patterns, grading to all required size sets and production markers from our end.

Sourcing Materials

We help to get ahead by sourcing items on our buyers' behalf in both the local and international market. We control the quality of all Materials and inputs and coordinates the timing of their procurement, imports. All materials are tested for a high standard quality set by our customers to ensure product meet specifications.

Production Follow-up

We monitor manufacturing manually and technically, from the fabric developments to finish product and keep our buyers regularly updated with production status. We identify any risk factors in the production of garments and discuss the same factors with the manufacturer to overcome the problems.

Quality Assurance

We maintain international standard requirements for all process till final product, and ensure that all production run in the meet standard.

Shipping Coordination

We review and check shipping documents to ensure they meet the buyer instruction provided by buyers L/Cs, well before the actual shipment arrival.

Inspection

We can conduct final Inspection and audit On behalf of our buyers when needed. We ensure 100% the shipment meets our buyer requirements and up to his standard.

WHY INDIGO?

It's often very hard to know actual difference between one Company to another. But we believe that we offer a real difference to meet customer's needs in a timely fashion. People at INDIGO are empowered to make decisions with a focus on "What is right" rather than "Who is right". We have created a culture of discipline that supports our entrepreneurial spirit and provides greater dependability and services.

We offer feasible solutions, along with pricing and schedule impacts for timely and informed decision making.

We also track progress until resolution is reached. This is what it means to be part of a collaborative team.

Another advantage to working with INDIGO is the level of involvement Clients has come to expect. INDIGO maintains a close working relationship throughout the development and construction process of deals to make sure the desires of the Clients are well communicated. When a client has a concern about, we are available. There is not bureaucracy here. Any member of the Team is willing to get in and roll up their sleeves, if the work requires that, we feel this is the best way to instill confidence in our clients which consistently earned us repeated business and valuable references.
